

Cookie Policy

Introduction

Lutron s.r.o. ("we", "us", "our") is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. This Cookie Policy explains what cookies are, how we use them, the types of cookies we use, the information we collect using cookies, how that information is used, and how to control the cookie preferences.

For further information on how we use, store, and keep your personal data secure, see our Privacy Notice.

What are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are used to store small pieces of information. They are stored on your device when the website is loaded on your browser. These cookies help us make the website function properly, make it more secure, provide a better user experience, and understand how the website performs and to analyze what works and where it needs improvement.

How We Use Cookies

Our website uses only essential cookies to ensure the proper functioning of our services. These cookies are crucial for the basic operations of the website and do not collect any personally identifiable information. The primary purposes of these essential cookies include:

- Ensuring the website functions correctly and efficiently.
- Maintaining the security of our services.
- Enhancing your user experience by remembering your preferences and speeding up future interactions with our website.

Types of Cookies We Use

Essential Cookies: These cookies are essential for the website to function. They enable core functionalities such as security, network management, and accessibility. You may disable these by changing your browser settings, but this may affect how the website functions.

Cookie Preferences

You can change your cookie preferences any time by clicking on the "Consent Preferences" link or through your browser settings. Please refer to the following links for instructions on how to manage and delete cookies in the major web browsers:

- Google Chrome
- Mozilla Firefox
- Safari
- Microsoft Edge

If you are using any other web browser, please visit your browser's official support documents.

Changes to This Cookie Policy

We may update our Cookie Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or for other operational, legal, or regulatory reasons. Please revisit this Cookie Policy regularly to stay informed about our use of cookies and related technologies.
